FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Early Season Whitetail Jacket is Both Quiet and Durable

Bozeman, MT. Sitka Gear, the industry leader in performance hunting gear, is excited to announce the introduction of their Early Season Whitetail Jacket. This jacket is the perfect companion to the Early Season Whitetail Pant introduced in 2013.

The Early Season Whitetail Jacket is built for silently ambushing bruisers in the pre-rut, when the temperatures still sore and the undergrowth is at its thickest. Lightweight and ultra-breathable, this jacket expels heat and perspiration to help keep the hunter cool on the stand, while still offering an ultra-durable construction, built to withstanding the blazing of trails through the harshest terrain. The 4-way stretch fabric is articulated for the seated position, with fitted sleeves so you can draw your bow without bunching or pulling.
